Public Is Aroused.

The public is aroused to a knowledge of the curative merits of that great medicinal tonic, Electric Bitters, for sick stomach, liver and kidneys. Mary H. Walters of 546 St. Clair Ave., Columbus, O., writes: "For several months I was given up to die. I had fever and ague and my nerves were wrecked. I could not sleep and my stomach was so weak from useless doctors' drugs that I could not eat. Soon after beginning to take Electric Bitters I obtained relief, and in a short time I was entirely cured." Guaranteed at the Red Cross Pharmacy and Parlor Drug Store. Price 50c.

Says the Ocean Grove Times: 'Miss Margaret E. Asay gave a truly dramatic recitation of "The Bells" as her first selection. Her choice was a happy one, and her cleverness was made apparent before the close of the first verse of this well-known piece. There are no affectations in Miss Asay's manner such as are noticed in many professional readers, and which invariably make the audience feel immeasurably uncomfortable. She compositions, notably one by James Whiteomb Riley, that visibly stirred the hearts of her hearers. Miss Asay gave ample evidence that she is able to move her audience to tears or laughter, as she may elect." Miss Asay will give read-ing in the Methodist church, Monday evening, Aug. 28th. She will be assisted by some of the best singers in the city.
